ORDER

As per the Government Orders and the Circular read above, officers have been granted Special Casual Leave for management of Covid-19 infection and related issues. Now, several doubts have been raised regarding combination of this leave with other kinds of leave and also as to whether this leave period will be considered as duty for probation.

Considering the various orders regarding functioning of Government offices during the period of Covid-19 pandemic and the special circumstances that necessitated the sanctioning of this leave, Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to issue the following orders in continuation of the orders read above:

- (i). Special Casual Leave sanctioned for Covid-19 is renamed as 'Special Leave for Covid-19.'
- (ii). Such leave will be combined with Casual Leave and/or any other kind of leave due and admissible. It is permissible to allow public holidays or vacation to intervene between two kinds of leave. Similarly, public holidays or vacation may be prefixed or suffixed to leave or both prefixed and suffixed.
- (iii). Employees on Leave without Allowance under Appendix XII-A, XII-B, XII-C, Part I, the Kerala Service Rules will not be eligible for Special Leave for Covid-19 during the currency of or in continuation of LWA under those rules.
- (iv). The period of Special Leave for Covid-19 will be treated as duty for probation as a special case.
- (v). The leave salary will be as under Rule 92, Part I, the Kerala Service Rules.
- (vi). Appointing Authority/Controlling Authority will be competent to sanction the leave subject to these conditions and those specified in the Government Orders and the Circular read above.
